

NATIONAL YOUTH TRANSPORTATION EQUITY FELLOWSHIP

Immersing BIPOC youth leaders in a 10-month educational and community engagement experience addressing transportation inequities in their local communities

EMAIL: JSMITH@NOYS.ORG - WEBSITE: NOYS.ORG

KEY FELLOWSHIP OUTCOMES

- Over 120 applications from across the country
- Equipped 8 BIPOC youth throughout a 10-month fellowship program
- Bi-weekly cohort-Learning discussions featuring guest lectures
- 480 hours in technical assistance/mentorship to fellows
- $31,000 in living wage stipends distributed
- 62 hyperlocal partnerships developed across the country
- 8 hyperlocal interventions developing, with a 43,000 reach to date

KEY TOPICS

EQUITY-
CENTERED
COMMUNITY
DESIGN,
ENGAGEMENT
AND FEEDBACK

DATA + LIVED EXPERIENCES

HISTORY OF U.S
TRANSPORTATION
SYSTEM
PERPETUATING
INEQUITIES

DEVELOPING BIPOC LEADERSHIP IN
TRANSPORTATION
EQUITY

HARNESSING
DIGITAL STORYTELLING

THE GOOD, UNSURE
& BAD
IMPLEMENTATION
OF TECHNOLOGY
SOLUTIONS

FEATURED INTERVENTIONS

ALL INTERVENTIONS INCORPORATED
EQUITY-CENTERED COMMUNITY DESIGN, ENGAGEMENT & FEEDBACK

NYTEF: CALAH GIBSON'S INTERVENTION

A We Walk Memphis Mobility Justice Project shifting power to marginalized youth to advocate for multimodal transportation through a ZINE development, youth activities, and mobility justice workshops

NYTEF: FATIMA ELKOTT'S INTERVENTION

TCFW

TAMPA CONNECT FASHION WEEK

A Youth-Centered, Collaborative, and Creative Approach to Celebrate, Connect, and Champion Community

WHY A FASHION WEEK?

Community-Driven Initiative

Started from active involvement in local creative community

Listening to and centering youth led to the desire to use fashion and art as a medium of building community

Natural Collaboration

Grassroots approach promotes a sense of ongoing ownership and belonging

Youth-Led storytelling emerged as a tool

Authentic and Inclusive

Community-rooted atmosphere fostered rapid connection and collaboration.

Genuine conversations around transportation safety and equity

TCFW's success showcases the positive impacts of Allowing Youth to Lead.

When youth are given a platform, their leadership can create positive ripple effects throughout the community-
Sparking collaboration and innovative solutions.

INNOVATIVE COMMUNICATION THROUGH ART

This youth leadership embraced innovative communication methods, using art and creativity to tell powerful stories.

Our social media campaigns promote transportation equity and safety, focusing on the use of public transit, walking, biking, and other sustainable modes of transportation.

THE POWER OF DIGITAL STORYTELLING

These campaigns focus on creating content in ways that resonate with youth and allow for creative expression. This approach is necessary when creating the cultural shift necessary for safer transportation practices for all.

01

Complete all hyperlocal interventions with an estimated 50K reach

02

Develop a comprehensive fellowship final report and roadmap

03

Launch 2024 expanded national fellowship in July 2024

04

Announce 20 selected BIPOC youth fellows at #NYTEC2024 in Denver, CO

FELLOWSHIP NEXT STEPS

SHIFTING POWER TO BIPOC YOUTH FOR TRANSPORTATION EQUITY

NIYTEC X2024

National Youth Transportation Equity Convening

Denver, Colorado
September 20-21

EMAIL: JSMITH@NOYS.ORG - WEBSITE: NOYS.ORG