

International
Instructor-led classroom course

NSC Emergency Medical Response

The most authoritative first aid training on the market

This 52-hour program delivers the CPR and ECC Guidelines essential for emergency response teams; safety personnel; fire, police and ambulance personnel; EMS professionals and health care providers.

What you will learn

- Patient assessment, childbirth and assisting infants and children
- Airway and breathing emergencies, ventilation devices and oxygen
- Cardiac emergencies, CPR and automated external defibrillation
- Illness and injury, including medical emergencies; bleeding and shock; soft-tissue injuries and muscle, bone, head and spinal injuries

Course content

- NSC Basic Life Support for Health Care & Professional Rescuers CPR
- Assisting with childbirth
- Managing muscle, bone, head and spine injuries
- Mass casualty incidents and triage

Course materials

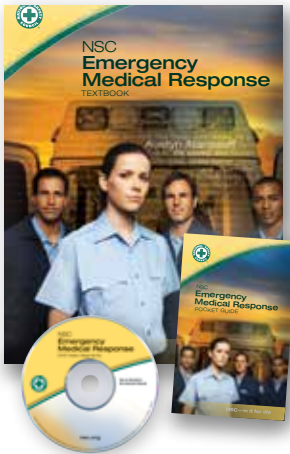

Instructor Resource Kit

- Instructor DVD with Instructor Manual, 1,400 PowerPoint® presentations, test bank and exams
- NSC BLS for Health Care & Professional Rescuers DVD
- NSC Emergency Medical Response skills DVD
- Instructional DVD on how to set up the classroom
- Instructor Resource CD with administrative documents
- Student Textbook with DVD and Pocket Guide

Student Textbook

- Full-color, step-by-step photos sequences, illustrations and skills demonstrations
- Course DVD featuring real-life scenarios and CPR skills demonstrations
- NSC Emergency Medical Response Pocket Guide
- Nationally recognized course completion cards

For more information about all of the NSC First Aid training programs, visit nsc.org/international or call +1 (630) 775-2056 for more details.

Become an authorized NSC Instructor

If you have EMR training experience with another provider, you may qualify to migrate your credentials to an authorized NSC instructor. Visit nsc.org/firstaid.

National Safety Council
1121 SPRING LAKE DRIVE
ITASCA, IL 60143-3201 U.S.A.
+1 (630) 775-2056
NSC.ORG/INTERNATIONAL